FROM THE DIRECTOR

Credit union meetings:

Representatives from sixty credit unions attended the eight meetings held during the first two weeks of December. Four PowerPoint presentations are available for viewing on the Division of Credit Union's internet site at <http://www.ded.state.mo.us/regulatorylicensing/creditunion/whatsnew.shtml>.

Several suggestions were received that we will be implementing. They include:

Place call report forms on the Division of Credit Unions' web site:

Actually the forms are now being placed on the web site for downloading by the last day of the month ending the quarter (March, June, September and December).

Optional examiner disclosure of CAMEL rating:

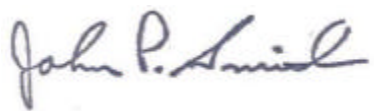

Credit unions appear to be divided on the value of examiners disclosing the CAMEL rating to credit union officials.

Examiners, beginning with 2002, for CAMEL 1 and 2 rated credit unions, had the discretion of not conducting an exit conference at a full board meeting, therefore these credit unions know their rating is either a 1 or 2 without disclosure. Examiners are required to conduct an exit conference with the board of directors and senior management for all CAMEL 3, 4 or 5 rated credit unions. Therefore beginning January 1, 2003, disclosure of the CAMEL rating will be at the discretion of the examiner or request by the credit union.

Hot Topics on Division of Credit Unions' internet site:

As suggested we will be placing "hot topics" which are recent examination findings noted by examiners on the "What's New" link on the Division's web site.

From the Division of Credit Unions' employees: We wish everyone a happy holiday season.
